

February 2, 2012

Boonton, NJ:

John Hill School Teacher Chosen for “Teachers Who Rock Class of 2012”

Lorraine Kiernan, a Special Education teacher in the John Hill School, has been chosen as a “Teacher Who Rocks.” Sponsored by the Greater Media Radio NJ, the “Teachers Who Rock” program is part of the 6th Annual Garden State Teacher Awards program. 72 teachers from the state were chosen to receive the award.

Dr. Robert Sutter, Principal of John Hill School, nominated Ms. Kiernan for this award. “Ms. Kiernan is a dedicated, conscientious, loyal and selfless educator,” said Dr. Sutter. She is a true inspiration and we are fortunate to have her as a member of our teaching team and community.”

On Friday, February 3rd, Ms. Kiernan’s nomination letter will be read live on 105.5 WDHA-FM and 1250 WMTR-AM at 9:20 am. An awards banquet is also scheduled for March 13th for the “Teachers Who Rock Class of 2012.”