In this course, the student will study literary genres of the short story, the novel, and the play. A focus on the key elements of narration—plot, character, setting, point of view, symbolism, irony, and theme—will be included in the course. Students will be able to develop an awareness of writing as a process. Essay writing will be the focus of the course in preparation for the HSPA state test. Study skills, grammar usage, vocabulary study, research skills, and public speaking will be incorporated throughout the year.
